This truck-mounted professional carpet cleaning business primarily services an affluent lakefront community in the Sierra Gold Country. Business has an established repeat customer base and the nearest competition is about 40 minutes away. This safe and peaceful community is an excellent place to semi-retire or raise a family. Owner currently works only three days per week (by choice) and does very little marketing. The opportunity exists to expand revenues and earnings by increasing marketing and servicing more customers outside of the immediate area. NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY. Owner can fully train Buyer on all aspects of running the business and performing the required services. Price includes truck and professional quality equipment.
