Award-Winning Auto Repair Shop in Santa Rosa

Most auto shops fix cars. The smart ones become the default answer when something goes wrong. This Sonoma County repair business has quietly built exactly that: loyal repeat customers, consistent profitability, and a strong local reputation. Operated by an experienced team of 5 plus an owner-operator, the shop services a broad mix of vehicle brands and models. The real advantage? You're not just buying cash flow – you're buying the property too (valued at ~$1.25M). SBA financing is pre-approved with 10% down, 25-year term, and rates around 7%. A rare chance to own both the business and the real estate in a high-demand market.
