This is an opportunity to acquire intellectual property (patents and several trademarks) along with production capabilities associated with "Perfect Sandwich". What is Perfect Sandwich? Quite truthfully, it's the only solution to the age-old soggy sandwich problem. Americans consume over 45 billion sandwiches every year! And yet, despite this astonishing number, not one company has come up with a solution to the soggy sandwich problem... until now. Perfect Sandwich is a one of a kind lunch solution that enables the diner-on-the-go to separate the fresh ingredients from the bread until mealtime, all while keeping its contents chilled for up to 8 hours.
