Beloved Bicycle Shop with Growth Potential

More than just a bike shop, this business has become a destination. Housed in an historic building, the shop offers a curated selection of bikes and accessories, along with repair and maintenance services. Profitability has increased significantly year over year. Included is approximately $250,000 of inventory and a professionally designed website with online ordering capabilities. Whether you're an entrepreneur seeking a lifestyle business, an experienced operator looking to expand, or a cycling enthusiast ready to own a shop of your own, this business offers a rare opportunity to blend passion with ownership in one of the country's most vibrant cycling markets.
