Long established, well managed pressure washing business with 5 star Google reviews. This business enjoys a great reputation for maintaining the majority of high value commercial structures county wide as well as vehicle fleets for large local owners and some residential paint prep / spring cleaning. A new owner will benefit greatly from the guard rails provided by the franchisor since operational, marketing and billing systems are already in place plus advisors are available to handle any issues that arise, post close. Franchisor and seller will provide training so the new owner will be successful in the EXCLUSIVE county wide territory.
