Click HERE to contact us about this business!

Growing boutique bakery known for its high-quality pastries and baked goods. With a central commissary kitchen and satellite retail outlets throughout the Portland metroplex, the patisserie is a go-to spot for locals and loyal customers. The business is backed by a fully equipped, commercial-grade kitchen and an experienced team ready to support new ownership. This is an ideal venture for an entrepreneur passionate about the food and hospitality industry, looking for a tested and successful business model with high profitability and a solid reputation. Also an attractive complementary capability for an existing food services company in the area or for vertical integration in a region chain.
