"The Nap" is a versatile truck bed camping platform that is primed for introduction to the growing vehicle camping and overlanding markets. The Nap installs and removes from the tailgate of your truck, without the need to climb into the bed, so you're on the road in minutes. The lightweight, powder coated, aircraft-grade aluminum frame provides load bearing strength and an ultra-durable soft topping keeps it cozy. The founders and designers have invested everything needed to prepare The Nap for market. The design, trademark, patent, and manufacturing legwork has all been done - ready now for a visionary investor to capitalize on the progress and corner the market with this unique product.
