Wholesale bakery producing a special niche bakery product for the last 15 years, in business since 1993. This bakery serves the needs of several large regional supermarket chains. The business is near capacity in its single 3000 sq ft facility but poised for growth with a buyer who can relocate production to its own larger facility and operational structure. Currently operating on a single shift with 17 FTEs focused on one product, this operation represents a streamlined opportunity primed to transition to the next stage.
