This one's HOT! In the Central Valley an HVAC company is an essential business. With over 30 years of experience, a small fleet of trucks in the field, & trained & certified technicians, this is a perfect opportunity for a company to acquire, or for a technician to take on as owner/operator. They service mostly commercial accounts with recurring need & sales for HVAC servicing. They also do solar work, which has seen a steady increase over the past years. The office staff & management are well trained giving a buyer a proven team receiving rave reviews. The owner is ready to retire & turn over his almost $1.5mm in annual sales to someone with a bit more energy.
