A New Zealand fireplace company with top-of-the-line products is expanding into North America following significant success in New Zealand and Australia. The first two locations will be in the Seattle, Washington and Vancouver, British Columbia metropolitan areas. The exclusive dealer opportunity includes comprehensive marketing, sales and operations support. The fireplace "studios" provide a gallery format, exclusive brands, and an end-to-end personalized sales experience that has proved to be exceptional and highly profitable in the targeted market niche. Established stores in major metropolitan areas are earning annual revenues in the $2.5-4.0M range.
