Northern California

Click HERE to contact us about this business!

This well established business has been specializing in 24 / 7 ambulance transportation in the greater San Francisco Bay Area. They operate a fleet of modern fully equipped ambulances which are strategically located throughout the geographical area of service. They are not only licensed by the State of California but also meet all state, local regulations and standards. This sale has only emerged due to the imminent retirement of the current owner. Great opportunity to expand and grow this business.
